Processing 2,000 tons of mail; averaging over 200 convoys a day for a total of 62,000 convoys involving 750,000 vehicles during 2004; and quality of life improvements, these are just a small mark of what the Soldiers of the 13th COSCOM have accomplished in their time [in Iraq], said Brig. Gen. James E. Chambers, 13th COSCOM commander. "There is a Soldier, sailor, airmen or Marine behind every great deed, jumping into the cab of a vehicle, knowing that a determined enemy is out there waiting," Chambers said.

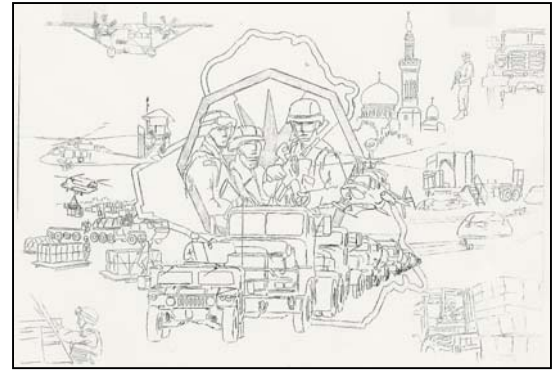

Now you can own a fitting tribute to the deeds of COSCOM soldiers serving in Iraq as part of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Renowned artist Don Moore has been commissioned to commemorate the exemplary service of COSCOM soldiers, airmen and sailors in their support to Combined Joint Task Force Seven, the Multi-National Corps-Iraq, and Central Command. Act now to own your part of military history; the COSCOM history; and your history.
